INDEX TO THE ADVANCEMENT OF SCIENCE

Volume 24, Nos. 119–122, September 1967–June 1968

The four issues of Volume 24 contain articles based on a selection of the papers presented at the Leeds Meeting of the British Association in 1967. (Figures in bold type preceding page references indicate issues of The Advancement of Science.

For further details of all papers presented at the Leeds Meeting, reference should be made to the 1967 Final Programme (and Supplementary Programme)—copies of which are still available from the British Association.

Arabian Basement Shield, the geology of the north-east margin of the, N. L. Falcon 119, 31

BAWN, PROF. C. E. H. Horizons for plastics 121, 284
BEEBY, DR. C. E. New ventures in educational planning 122, 491
BENNET-CLARK, PROF. T. A. The role of plant sciences in the modern world, 119, 65
Biological clocks, M. B. Wilkins 121, 273
BOOKS:
for the general reader (National Book League Notes), 119, 47, 120, 174, 121, 333, 122, 488 reviews, 119, 50, 120, 179, 121, 361, 122, 434
BROADBENT, DR. D. E. Aspects of human decision-making 119, 53
BROWN, PROF. W. M. COURT The study of human sex chromosome abnormalities with particular reference to intelligence and behaviour 122, 390
Budgetary policy, sense and nonsense in, A. R. Prest 120, 193

Cave exploration, some scientific aspects of, J. O. Myers 121, 354
China's development, science in, C. H. G. Oldham 122, 481
Cloth finishing, some traditional Irish methods of, A. T. Lucas 120, 184
Colour, advances in the science and technology of, I. D. Rattee, D. Patterson and F. Jones 122, 379
Control of entry of animal diseases into the United Kingdom, J. Reid 121, 336
Co-operative research in competitive industry, R. Weck 120, 129
COX, I. H. (Ed.) Why choose science ? Factors affecting the choice of subjects at school and university 120, 254

Decision-making, aspects of human, D. E. Broadbent 119, 53
DEDIJER, PROF. S. Models of science for science policy 122, 498
Design, fact and superstition in, A. A. Wells 120, 225

Early abilities and their later development, Joan A. Munro 122, 464
Educational planning, new ventures in, C. E. Beeby 122, 491
Education, new ventures in, Freda H. Gwilliam 120, 143
Engineering, the next thirty years in, M. W. Thring 119, 99

FALCON, N. L. The geology of the north-east margin of the Arbian Basement Shield 119, 31
Forecasting the weather by computer, B. J. Mason 121, 263

Geomorphology: trends and problems, R. F. Peel 120, 205
GRAY, DR. J. A. The physiological basis of personality 121, 293
GWILLIAM, MISS FREDA H. New ventures in education 120, 143

HARRIS, W. J. The origin of life—a master molecule ? 121, 326
HEMINGWAY, PROF. A. The development of methods of measurement in the cardiovascular system 122, 449
HENCHMAN, DR. M. J. What happens during a collision when two molecules collide and react 122, 404
HOGGART, PROF. R. The literary imagination and the study of society 121, 319
HORNE, F. R. The potentiality of plants for improving food supplies 120, 245
HUGHES, A. M. Looking at science 119, 74, 120, 162, 122, 460
Human origins, D. R. Pilbeam 121, 368
Human sex chromosome abnormalities, the study of, with particular reference to intelligence and behaviour, W. M. Court Brown 122, 390

JACKSON, LORD, Science, technology and society 119, 1
JONES, DR. F., RATTEE, PROF. I. D. and PATTERSON, DR. D. Advances in the science and technology of colour 122, 379

KEYNES, DR. R. D. The predetermination of sex 119, 43
KÖRNER, PROF. S. Mathematical frameworks in scientific thinking 121, 306

LAITHWAITE, PROF. E. R. Propulsion without wheels 119, 119
LINDEN, PROF. R. J. The contractile properties of cardiac muscle 122, 450
Literary imagination and the study of society, R. Hoggart 121, 319
LONSDALE, PROF. DAME KATHLEEN Physics and ageing 119, 11
Looking at science, A. M. Hughes Industry, film and contemporary society 119, 74, First catch your monkey 120, 162, Audio-visual aids 122, 460
LUCAS, DR. A. T. Some traditional Irish methods of cloth finishing 120, 184

Mammals, the origins of, F. R. Parrington 120, 165
MASON, DR. B. J. Forecasting the weather by computer 121, 263
Mathematical frameworks in scientific thinking, S. Körner 121, 306
MATTINGLY, DR. P. F. (Ed.) Our crowded world 122, 398

MEEK, PROF. R. L. Public authority pricing 121, 311
MUNRO, MISS JOAN A. Early abilities and their later development 122, 464
MYERS, DR. J. O. Some scientific aspects of cave exploration 121, 354

NEEDHAM, DR. J. The roles of Europe and China in the evolution of oecumenical science 119, 83

Oecumenical science, the roles of Europe and China in the evolution of, J. Needham 119, 83
OLDHAM, DR. C. H. G. Science in China's development 122, 481
Origin of life—a master molecule ?, W. J. Harris 121, 326
Our crowded world, P. F. Mattingly (Ed.) 122, 398
OXLEY, T. A. A scientific policy for the better use of wood 119, 77

PARRINGTON, DR. F. R. The origins of mammals 120 165
PATTERSON, DR. D., JONES, DR. F. and RATTEE, PROF I. D. Advances in the science and technology of colour 122, 379
PEEL, PROF. R. F. Geomorphology: trends and problems 120, 205
Performance of the heart, the assessment of the, A. Hemingway, R. J. Linden and S. H. Taylor 122, 449
Personality, the physiological basis of, J. A. Gray 121, 293
Physics and ageing, Dame Kathleen Lonsdale 119, 11
PILBEAM, D. R. Human origins 121, 368
Plant sciences in the modern world, the role of, T. A. Bennet-Clark 119, 65
Plants: off-the-peg or made-to-measure, R. Riley 120, 217
Plants, potentiality of, for improving food supplies, F. R. Horne 120, 245
Plastics, horizons for, C. E. H. Bawn 121, 284
PREST, PROF. A. R. Sense and nonsense in budgetary policy 120, 193
Propulsion without wheels, E. R. Laithwaite 119, 119
Public authority pricing, R. L. Meek 121, 311

RATTEE, PROF. I. D., PATTERSON, DR. D. and JONES, DR. F. Advances in the science and technology of colour 122, 379
REID, J. The control of entry of animal diseases into the United Kingdom 121, 336
RHIND, D. The impact of research on tropical agriculture 122, 443
RILEY, DR. R. Plants: off-the-peg or made-to-measure 120, 217

SAUER, PROF. W. L. Observations on Soviet sociology: a view from the sociology of science 120, 237
Science policy, models of science for, S. Dedijer 122, 498
Science, technology and society (Presidential Address 1967), Lord Jackson of Burnley 119, 1
Science, the profession of, E. Shils 122, 469
Sea floor—a new El Dorado ?, D. Taylor Smith 119, 107
Sex, the predetermination of, R. D. Keynes, 119, 43
SHILS, PROF. E. The profession of science 122, 469
SMITH, DR. CATHERINE A. Ultrastructure of the organ of Corti 122, 419
SMITH, D. TAYLOR, The sea floor—a new El Dorado ? 119, 107
Soviet sociology: a view from the sociology of science, observations on, W. L. Sauer 120, 237
Synthetic fibre materials, a third generation of, A. B. Thompson 120, 150

TAYLOR, DR. S. H. The investigation of cardiac performance in patients with heart disease 122, 455
THOMPSON, A. B. A third generation of synthetic fibre materials 120, 150
THRING, PROF. M. W. The next thirty years in engineering 119, 99
Tropical agriculture, the impact of research on, D. Rhind 122, 443

Ultrastructure of the organ of Corti, Catherine A. Smith 122, 419

WECK, DR. R. Co-operative research in competitive industry 120, 129
WELLS, PROF. A. A. Fact and superstition in design 120, 225
WESTOBY, J. C. Wood: world trends 121, 343
What happens during a collision when two molecules collide and react, M. J. Henchman 122, 404
Why choose science ? Factors affecting the choice of subjects at school and university, I. H. Cox (Ed.) 120, 254
WILKINS, PROF. M. B. Biological clocks 121, 273
Wood, a scientific policy for the better use of, T. A. Oxley 119, 77
Wood: world trends, J. C. Westoby 121, 343
